

San Diego Korean Food Week

September 12 - 20, 2008

Hello Friends and Supporters,

Welcome to 'Korean Food Week 2008' the first and longest Korean food related event in the U.S.

The 'Korean Food Week 2008' is a week long "celebration" of the uniqueness, healthy, variety of Korean cuisine in San Diego. There will be about 30 restaurants participating in the event during September 12~20th, mostly on Convoy St, but also around San Diego County. This event will include such restaurants as Korea House in Convoy Street, Aria in Oceanside, and OmiJung in National City, to name a few.

Also September is the time to celebrate the Korean Thanksgiving, called Chu'sok ("fall evening") which means a "Harvest Moon" festival set on the 15th day of the eighth lunar moon, this year falling on September 14th. Similar to the American Thanksgiving, Chu'sok is the time to celebrate the family and give thanks for their blessings by sharing foods and traditional drinks.

Also during this week-long event, restaurant patrons will be in a lucky draw for prizes such as gifts certificates, free rounds of golf and accommodations at Baja Ensenada's famous hotel, El Rey Sol, and many more.

Korean Food Week is sponsored by Zion Market, Korea House, Anheuser-Bush, and El Rey Sol Resort. The event is supported by the Office of Mayor, Jerry Sanders, Korean American Association, Ron Roberts - Supervisor, District 4 San Diego County, Sempra Energy, Fox 6, the Mabuhay Alliance, Mission Valley News & Views, KTSD-TV, Korea Daily, Korea Times, SDsaram.com, Radio Seoul, Radio Korea, Korean American Bar Association, and the Korean American Coalition.

We invite you to visit the participating restaurants and enjoy the fine meals and special prices during this event. For detailed information, visit our website at www.koreanfoodweek.com.

The creator of this event is Suji Kim from SUJIKIM international and Bridge International, and co-producer Dennis-Michael Broussard from Silk Road Productions.
