WELCOME TO

KOREAN FOOD WEEK

2008

September 12-20, 2008

On behalf of the citizens of San Diego, I am delighted to welcome all in attendance to the celebration of Korean Food Week 2008. This week you will have the opportunity to explore and celebrate the variety of Korean cuisine in San Diego.

It is with great pleasure that the city of San Diego hosts such a splendid celebration of Korean culture this week. Korean Food Week 2008 provides such a unique opportunity for San Diego residents and visitors to taste a variety of Korean cuisine at local Korean restaurants around San Diego. Not only does it support local business, but also gives the San Diego community a chance to learn about and experience different aspects of Korean culture and tradition such as Chu'sok, the Korean Thanksgiving and "Harvest Moon" festival.

Please accept my best wishes for a successful celebration. I hope that Korean Food Week 2008 will broaden your minds as well as your palates.

Sincerely,
